Birkholz to Speak to Hope College Environmental Affairs Group
Discussion will focus on Senate Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs Committee

Tuesday, March 4, 2003- Senator Patricia Birkholz, R-Saugatuck Township, is scheduled to speak to the Environmental Affairs Group at Hope College on Thursday, March 6, 2003 at 7:00 PM.

As the Chair of the Senate Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs Committee, Birkholz will explain legislation currently under consideration in the committee and the Senate.

“I am honored to be asked to speak to the Environmental Affairs Group at Hope College,” Birkholz said. “And, I am excited to share with these bright and enthusiastic students what environmental legislation we are currently working on in the Senate Natural Resources and Environmental Affairs Committee,” she added.

The presentation by Birkholz to the Hope College Environmental Affairs Group will take place in room 101 of Lubbers Hall at Hope College. The faculty advisor of the group is Stephen Hemingway, professor of English at Hope College.
